

CHAT IN YOUR THOUGHTS FROM YOUR READING OF PATRIARCHS & PROPHETS

Here is mine:

As the waters began to subside, the Lord caused the ark to drift into a spot protected by a group of mountains that had been preserved by His power. These mountains were but a little distance apart, and the ark moved about in this quiet haven, and was no longer driven upon the boundless ocean. (PP 105.2)

This reminded me of the beautiful promise in Psalm 125:1, 2.
